Redco Foods, Inc. Fact Sheet

About Redco Foods Inc.

Formed in 1985, Redco Foods, Inc. manufactures and distributes Salada tea, Red Rose tea and Junket brand dessert mixes from the Little Falls N.Y. operations facility. Redco is the hot tea licensee for Snapple, and distributes both Pompadour tea and Garden of the Andes tea. Redco maintains a network of Regional Sales managers and brokers in local markets. All manufacturing occurs in Little Falls, NY with Marketing and some Sales offices based in Windsor, CT.

About Teekanne

Redco Foods is owned by Teekanne GmbH of Dusseldorf, Germany. "Teekanne", which means "Tea Pot", is the premiere brand of specialty herbal and fruit teas in Europe. Inventors of the flow-through tea bag, the majority of tea bags sold in the United States over the last thirty years have been manufactured using Teekanne equipment.

Redco Foods Products

Salada: With over 15 varieties of green, white, black and fruit teas, Salada's teas are rich in healthy anti-oxidants. Salada recently released family sized tea bags in 100% Green Tea and Green Tea Tropical Fruit flavors.

Red Rose: Rich in heritage, Red Rose has six flavors of black tea, including loose and specialty teas and recently received the ChefsBest award rated highest overall among leading bagged black iced tea. Customers also receive a free figurine in marked boxes.

Junket: These Danish dessert, custard, fudge and ice cream mixes have been in production at the Hansen island plant for over 100 years

Retail Locations

Redco products are available at all major supermarket chains, specialty and natural food distributors, and northeastern foodservice distributors. Products can also be purchased online at www.redcofoods.com.
